455 Czk Ryzlink rýnský 2005, selection of bortrytis grapes
{Lobkowiczké zámecké vinařství Roudnice nad Labem s.r.o.}
wine with a distinctively ripe aroma of typical Lipovinka, very extractive. Residual sugar matches harmoniously with a pleasant acid. {0,5l}

550 Czk Pinot Noir 2008, selection of grapes
{Lobkowiczké zámecké vinařství Roudnice nad Labem s.r.o.}
a noble multi-layered Pinot of good character from an ancient area of Sovice is a cousin of great wines from Burgundy and it can compete with them easily.

Mělník subregion

525 Czk Pinot Noir – Rulandské modré 2006, grapes selection
{Lobkowicz vinařství Mělník}
a wine of a typical varietal character of wild strawberries completed with barrique casks where the wine matured for 14 months. Aging developed delicate smoky and vanilla tones. The taste is long with a touch of herbal spiciness.

Mikulov subregion

white

515 Czk Veltlínské zelené 2009, late harvest {Vinařství Málek}
a harmonious and spicy Veltliner. The aroma of grapefruits and the scent of meadows in full bloom, in the taste you reveal almonds, green apples and fresh acid.

795 Czk Rýnský Ryzlink Velký Sonberk 2008, late harvest
{Vinařství Sonberk}
a wine with a wide range of flavours: herbs, acacia flowers, honeycomb, apricots but also paraffin. It has excellent acid.

595 Czk Chardonnay 2009, Moravian country wine {ArteVini}
a flowery scent with a gentle touch of herbs and toasted bread. In the mouth, the wine is creamy and elegant, full-bodied and harmonious with a distinctive and slightly spicy mineral finish.

648 Czk Pinot blanc Maidenburg 2009, late harvest {Reisten Valtice} very flowery and elegant bouquet of meadow flowers and wide roses with a honey touch suggests a full-bodied and structured taste with distinctive and exceptionally salty minerality and a long aftertaste.

590 Czk Vlašský ryzlink 2009, late harvest {Mikrosvín Mikulov}
a creamy mineral aroma is spicy, fruity and pure. The tones fully develop into the taste and they are supported by the soft flavour of grapefruits and citrus.

698 Czk Sauvignon 2010, late harvest {Gala}
a lovely light yellow wine in colour with a distinctive flavour with tones of white peaches, elderberries and a light mineral touch of gunpowder given by limy subsoil of the vineyard. The taste is distinctive and rich in fruitiness.

rose

475 Czk Cabernet Sauvignon rosé 2010 {Nové Vinařství}
orange pink wine with pleasant Cabernet aroma. The taste is fresh and reminds of blackcurrants.

799 Czk Pinot Noir 2006, selection of grapes {Tanzberg Mikulov}
light ruby colour and flavours of forest fruits, raspberries and rowans. The wine is medium-bodied and very harmonious.

790 Czk Merlot 2008, late harvest {Georgios Ilias}
a beautifully full-bodied wine with the flavour of a sour cherry stone in the taste. A perfectly velvety Merlot.

the aroma of ripe grapes, blackberries and blueberries. A velvety bouquet with tones of chocolate-coated sour cherries and various dried fruit can be traced. Soft tannins appear in the aftertaste.

755 Kč Cabernet Moravia 2007, late harvest barrique {Glos}
a full-bodied wine with a mighty flavour of blueberries and blackcurrants, in taste there are soft tones of marmalade made from forest fruits.

Velké Pavlovice subregion

Authentists

During the process of wine preparation, authentists exclude usage of selected yeast and addition of sugar, enzymes, tannins together with further ten substances. They prefer wooden, ceramic and glass wine containers. Growers do not use any herbicides or insecticides in the vineyards. They prefer contact organic spraying that is in compliance with an organic regime.

white

648 Czk Veltlínské zelené 2010, Moravian country wine {Zdeněk Vykoukal} an unprecedentedly mineral wine from the battlefield of Austerlitz is a perfect example of a great Moravian Veltliner. The locality of Stará hora was liquefied with its subsoil containing the above-average amount of magnesium.

590 Czk Sauvignon 2010, Moravian country wine {Zdeněk Vykoukal}
the wine has a very intensive and rich aroma reminding of honeydew melon, peaches, gooseberries and elderberries. The wine is mineral with fresh acidity and a lovely aftertaste.

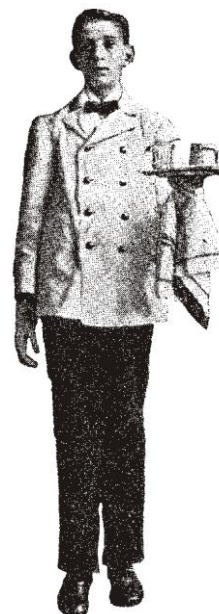

590 Czk Aurelius 2010, Moravian country wine {Ota Ševčík}
a fresh and delicate drink with a juicy finale containing a straightforward acid. Rheinriesling and Neuburger wines are parents of this Moravian variety.

638 Czk Zweigeltrebe 2008, Moravian country wine {Jaroslav Osička}
a lovely unfiltered wine that is medium-bodied with a sweet fruity and spicy aroma.

658 Czk Cabernet Sauvignon 2010, Moravian country wine {Ota Ševčík}
the wine provides flavours of blackcurrants, blackberries and gingerbread spices. In taste it is mellow, very stylish and elegant.

798 Czk Cabernet Sauvignon 2009, Moravian country wine {Petr Kočařík} a blackcurrant Cabernet has a character typical of the variety with undertones of peppers and the aroma of bitter chocolate. Its higher extract provides a nice aftertaste. The wine is quite distinctive with little sulfur used during the production. Self-collected and concentrated, sending out rays of piece.

Alsace region

white

1 990 Czk Riesling les Ecaillers 2004 {Leon Beyer}

the wine from the Grand Cru Pfersigberg vineyard is produced only in exceptionally excellent vintages. On nose you distinguish citrus, peaches, light tones of paraffin, honey, apples. The wine is mineral with well-balanced acid and nice length.

1 368 Czk Gewurztraminer 2009 {Leon Beyer}

the wine has a bright goldish colour with the aroma of flowers, fruit and spices. It is pleasantly distinctive with a soft spicy taste which is typical for the variety: tone of flowers and fruit. The wine shows a full body and a pleasant long aftertaste.

1 035 Czk Sylvaner Réserve 2008 {Domaine Weinbach}

wine of a beautiful goldish colour emphasized by shining reflections. In aroma you may be surprised by high minerality caused by granite subsoil that evolves slowly into aroma of white truffles. In taste also high minerality completed with intensive acid. Full-bodied with a long finish.

Val de Loire region

white

1 199 Czk Sancerre blanc cuvée „Le Chêne“ 2009 {Lucien Crochet}

light yellow green colour and the intensive aroma of limes, freshly mown meadows and peaches. The wine has a fresh and lively beginning with tart acid that changes into tones of lemon and rhubarb. A very fresh and long mineral aftertaste.

1 145 Czk Sancerre blanc Les Baronnes 2010 {Henri Bourgeois}

a soft and fresh wine with tones of citrus and exotic fruit that are typical features of this complex Sauvignon with a harmonious and long-lasting taste.

1 505 Czk Sancerre blanc 2010 {Pascal Jolivet}

a 100% Sauvignon blanc – the soft and fresh mineral wine with the aroma of gooseberries, elderberries and peaches. The must ferments naturally without added fine yeast in connection with temperature reduction. The philosophy behind it is to allow the nature express itself. The grapes come from three various territories, e. g. from soil with chalky subsoil, clay or limestone subsoil and stony soil rich in flintstones. A great classic from Pascal Jolivet who belongs to the absolute top in production of Sancerre.

898 Czk Savennières 2005 {Château Chamboureau}

Trentino-Alto Ádige region

white

685 Czk Weissburgunder DOC 2009 {Kellerei Terlan}

a light straw-coloured wine of a fresh flavour with tones of a blooming spring meadow, puff pastry and ripe pears. The wine is elegant, dry and mineral with a pure taste which gives a true picture of the territory of northern Italy. The wine is medium-bodied and typical of the variety.

890 Czk „Winkl“ Sauvignon blanc DOC 2010 {Kellerei Terlan}

a typical intensive varietal aroma with pleasant minerality reminds of a ground blackcurrant leaf. A dry and elegant wine with distinctive minerality and harmonious acid matures in wooden barrels for eight months. A long, rich and unobtrusive wine. Grapes originate from the Winkl's vineyard.

795 Czk Sauvignon blanc Prail DOC 2010 {Colterenzio}

a wine of bright colour with greenish reflections and a dry and noticeable taste with fresh acid and reliable minerality. On cold and steep Eppan slopes the Sauvignon provides elegant, full-bodied and distinctive wines with flavours of elderberry flowers, white gooseberry and herbs.

895 Czk Sauvignon Mantele DOC 2009 {Nals Margreid}

golden colour with greenish flashes and a fresh and very intensive aroma of elder tree flowers, nettles and green gooseberries. A very distinctive and full-bodied wine has fresh structure and unmistakably firm texture. A long and harmonious finish.

875 Czk Pinot Grigio Punggl DOC 2010 {Nals Margreid}

clear and bright golden colour with light pink reflections together with the fruity aroma with soft tones of walnuts, honey and fresh flowers that provide the elegance and charm of the wine. The taste is full-bodied and juicy with a light mineral character and a long aftertaste.

sweet wine of golden yellow colour with brownish tinge, pleasantly sweet and aromatic. Bouquet of wine develops within the first 5 years of aging, gradually it gains soft touches of caramel, toffees, mint and vanilla. To basic measure the big raisins with seeds from 3 or 5 back baskets are added. Sugar content at least 60 g, it also contains at least 12 % alcohol. {0,5l}

Partly dried grapes of the Furmint and Hárslevelü varieties affected by the Botrytis Cinerea fungus (called "Aszú" in Hungarian) are left for 6-8 days in a wooden puttony tub. A puttony holds approximately 25 kg of grapes. The extract from the puttony is then added to a mixture of Furmint and Hárslevelü The Aszú number depends on how many puttony are added to one 140 l cask of base wine. The more puttony, the darker, thicker and more valuable the wine.
